Oakland Marathon
Access Information

The Oakland Marathon will again this year impede our easy access to church.

The upper map shows the complete race route, and the lower map shows two possible access points to our building.

Difficulty with confirming information received from the City of Oakland means that the exact route to access the parking lot or the garage (once you arrive on 1st Ave) is unknown.

The attached blue pass has been approved by the Oakland Police Dept. and just needs to be shown to either an Oakland police officer or a marathon volunteer for passage across any blocked street.

You may also park outside the race perimeter and walk to church. No matter how you plan to travel, please allow extra time and carry the blue pass with you.

The streets we will need to cross will be closed from 5 am to 12 noon.
