

Oakland Churches Together

OCT churches will join the Faith Contingent at the Oakland NO KINGS March of March 28. Click here for more information on Oakland's representation in this national, non-violent demonstration of resistance to our government's actions sponsored by Indivisible, a non-partisan organizing group NO KINGS OAKLAND · Indivisible

The Faith Contingent will be at the front of the march, with large banners provided by Indivisible. To join the Faith Contingent, meet at 11:30 a.m. at First Unitarian Church of Oakland at 685 14th St. at the corner of 14th and Castro - next to the 980 freeway. There is only street parking - consider taking BART to 12th Street City Center station and walk four blocks west to the church, between Martin Luther King, Jr. Way and Castro. Wear your church shirt and bring your banners!

No Kings March agenda:

11:30 Meet at First Unitarian (or just come to the March and look for the Faith Contingent banner)

11:30 – 12:00 Faith contingent walks to Frank Ogawa/Oscar Grant Plaza

12:00 – 1:00 Groups get in formation

1:00 – 1:45 March from Plaza to Lake Merritt Amphitheater

1:45 – 2:00 Short Program

2:00 – 2:15 Transition to (optional) post-program activities

2:20 – 2:240 Mass Non-Cooperation Teach-In (optional)

2:20 March to PG&E to protest contracting with Palantir (optional)

Safety Suggestions

Arrive and leave with another person. Make a plan for transportation together.

Let your loved ones not at the event know your plans (location, transportation, phone # of another person at event).

Bring food, water, medicine and first aid.

Limited seating - keep your accessibility needs in mind.

Decide ahead –what is your “red line” If X happens (violence, for example) – what you will do? Think through the possibilities before attending and make a plan. Discuss with your loved ones and the person(s) you are attending with.

Stay together with your buddy/buddies during the event.

If you leave early, let someone else in the larger group know. Keep track of each other.